

Obtained her Office Management degree at the Arteveldehogeschool in Ghent in 2012.

She already did several internships within the medical sector.

Since 2013, Amélie has been working for the center for knee and hip surgery.

Together with her colleague Karolien she takes care of the patient administration and supports the consultations.

Amélie likes to make time for her partner, family and friends and loves to swim.