

A whole team of physiotherapists and occupational therapists will be guiding you every day in re-learning steps with your prosthesis and learning the different exercises.